

APPROACHING THE PAST— Toronto and THE HISTORY EDUCATION NETWORK (THENHIER.CA) Presents...

Investigating Toronto's Histories

Join us for four events to explore key moments in Toronto's history from multiple perspectives.

Folders of resources will be provided to all educators.

All events are free.

Refreshments are provided beginning at 5:00p.m.

Event program will run from 5:45p.m. to 7:30p.m. Everyone is welcome.

For details about event topics, speakers and locations please visit:
approachingthepast.ca

Wednesday, October 2nd, 2013

Picturing Toronto on and off the grid

-exploring 100 years of street photography in Toronto

Feature presentation: "Lights, Camera, Archives" by Stewart Boden, Outreach Officer/Archives of Ontario

City of Toronto Archives, 255 Spadina Road

Tuesday, November 5th, 2013

Exploring Landscapes of Leisure

-exploring the uses of High Park, Colborne Lodge and the Toronto Waterfront

Colborne Lodge, 11 Colborne Lodge Drive

Wednesday, February 26th, 2014

Going to War-how Torontonians experienced World War I.

This event will be on an online examination of online-primary sources and blogging to talk about Torontonians experiences in the war. Historical photographs now housed at the City of Toronto Archives will be explored.

Online

Wednesday, April 30th, 2014

Documenting and Preserving Toronto's Past

-the work of photographer Nir Bareket

Nir Bareket will speak about his photographs of Toronto which are now housed in the City of Toronto Archives.

Market Gallery, 95 Front Street East,
2nd floor