

Approaching the Past

a series connecting people teaching history

Come celebrate the end of the school year at one of Ontario's most beloved historical venues!

The History Education Network /
Histoire et Éducation en Réseau (www.thenhier.ca)
and Active History (www.activehistory.ca) invite historians, history and social studies teachers, public history professionals, and students in History, Education, Museum Studies, and related fields to attend an evening of discussion on teaching history in diverse venues

Wednesday, June 16th

7-9pm

Victoria Room, Black Creek Pioneer Village

Guest speaker: Professor Ruth Sandwell, OISE/UT
"History is a Verb: Using Historical Sources to Teach Canadian Rural History"

Refreshments will be provided

Please RSVP, indicating your professional affiliation, to Jennifer Bonnell at jennifer.bonnell@utoronto.ca
by Friday, June 4th.