

Application Process for Benchmarks of Historical Thinking Summer Institute Bursaries

The History Education Network/ histoire et éducation en réseau (THEN/HiER) is making available five bursaries for attendees at the Benchmarks of Historical Thinking Summer Institute, which will take place in Ottawa, July 5-10, 2010.

Each bursary will fund tuition, accommodation, food and transportation costs to a total of $2500.00. Funds will be remitted upon presentation of receipts.

Application Deadline: March 1, 2010

Please see below for the application procedures and selection criteria.

For further information, please contact Dr. Anne Marie Goodfellow, Network Manager at (604) 822-6915 or at annemarie.goodfellow@ubc.ca.

Application for THEN/HiER Bursaries
Benchmarks of Historical Thinking Summer Institute

Name: _____

Address: _____

Affiliation: _____
(school or institution where you are employed or a student)

Email address: _____

Level(s) and subject area(s): _____

(grades and subjects for teachers and pre-service teachers; or programs you deliver, for other educators, e.g. museum personnel)

Please write a 1-2 page (approx. 500 words) description of how you think you will use the understandings you gain from the institute in your work environment and include it with your application.

Selection Criteria

1. Successful applicants will demonstrate in their application the perceived benefits of participation in the institute for the teaching of history.
2. THEN/HiER will aim for regional representation in granting the bursaries.

Please submit your application by email using a single attachment to Anne Marie Goodfellow, at annemarie.goodfellow@ubc.ca. Receipt of applications will be acknowledged, and all applicants will be notified of the adjudication committee's decision regarding individual applications. Application deadline is March 1, 2010.