

HTAA NATIONAL CONFERENCE 2015

29 SEPTEMBER - 2 OCTOBER 2015 FLEMINGTON RACECOURSE MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA

RACING INTO HISTORY

Hosted by HTAV
HISTORY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION of VICTORIA

Keynote Speakers

Features:

- Easy access from Melbourne CBD.
- Engaging workshops relevant to primary, middle years and senior teachers covering classroom strategies, activities and pedagogy to improve student outcomes.
- Sessions providing an up-to-date knowledge of subject discipline.
- Sessions on twenty-first century skills, local and personal history, apps, webtools, virtual history, social media, pop culture, sustainability, Indigenous perspectives, assessment, historical literacy and more.
- Excursions to places of interest on Friday, 2 October 2015.
- Special conference rates for HTAV members and HTAA affiliate members.
- Over thirty-five exhibitors.
- Great exhibitor prizes – including the opportunity to win up to $20,000 off your school history tour courtesy of Latitude Group Travel; trip to Canberra, courtesy of the National Capital Educational Tourism Project; $2000 financial plan, courtesy of Catholic Super; and a lot more.

Sessions on Ancient, Twentieth Century,
Global Empires, Revolutions and
Australian History

Professor Sheila Fitzpatrick

History as a Vocation
University of Sydney

Mr Bruce Pascoe

History is What We Choose to Remember
Author

Dr Stéphane Levesque

Why Should Historical Thinking Matter to Students?
University of Ottawa,
Canada

Featuring more than ninety sessions over three days including:

- Four Steps to Historical Literacy
- Linking Literacy and Critical Thinking
- History and 'Sustainability' Opportunities
- Engaging Students' Varied Learning Styles
- An Orthodox Perspective on the Crusades
- Teaching History in the Primary Classroom
- How to Manage a Faculty in an Era of Change
- Contemporary Learning to Empower Students

Registrations
opening soon.
More information
in the Member Bulletins.