

OUTLINE AND INDEX
MAP OF CITY OF HALIFAX,
N.S.

The History Education Network/
Histoire et Éducation en Réseau presents

Imagining Gateways: Collaboration & innovation in teaching and learning history

October 27-29, 2011
Halifax, Nova Scotia

Sponsored by

The History Education Network (THEN/HiER)
and jointly hosted by The History Education Network, the Nova Scotia Social Studies Teachers' Association, Nova Scotia Archives, and the Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21

We invite you to participate in three days of discussion with historians, history educators, museum staff, and community members interested in pedagogy and practice related to history teaching and learning.

Thursday October 27 Evening 4:45-7:00pm	Friday October 28 Morning 8:30-1:30pm	Friday October 28 Afternoon 2:00-5:00pm	Saturday October 29 Morning 9:30-11:30am
"Welcome: Storytelling and the archives" Tour and presentation at the Nova Scotia Archives, as well as performance by local musician and storyteller	"Facilitating Talk between Teachers and Historians" Special panel with the Nova Scotia Social Studies Teachers' Association at Lockview High School. $70 payment	"Narratives of Migration" Tour, panel session, and keynote at The Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21	"Big Questions Brunch" Discussion and wrap-up session at Lord Nelson Hotel

Refreshments provided

must go through ssta.ednet.ns.ca

Refreshments provided

Refreshments provided

To attend visit www.thenhier.ca
and download the registration form

