

AN EXCITING LOGO CONTEST

The British Columbia Historical Federation is an umbrella organization with 180 memberships comprising historical societies and sites, museums, archives, etc. representing 24,947 individual members all with the common goal for the preservation and promotion of British Columbia's colorful history. www.bchistory.ca

The Federation is looking for an eye catching and innovative logo reflecting their preservation and promotion of B.C.'s history that will become identifiable to those in the historical and academic fields as well as those with an interest in B.C.'s history. The logo will be used on stationery, BCHF website, its publications and at conferences and other functions.

The logo contest is open to all residents in British Columbia including students enrolled in graphics and arts programs in any B.C. schools, colleges, universities, etc.

Entrants to supply - artwork and explanation of what the logo reflects or represents
- short bio of person submitting the entry (if a student, name of learning institution)
- entry to be forwarded electronically in pdf format to newsletter@bchistory.ca

OR

- by mail - two copies in printed format to
BC Historical Federation - Logo
10991 No. 1 Road - Box 36105
Richmond, B.C. V7E 1S0

Deadline for entries November 1st, 2010
Decision by the judges is final.

Copyright of the winning Logo will become the property of the BC Historical Federation and the winner will receive a $500 honorarium, a one year subscription to the BC History magazine and an Award Certificate. A picture of the designer/winner and write up will be used by the Federation in its Newsletter, BC History magazine, bchistory.ca website and other announcements.

For queries newsletter@bchistory.ca or education@bchistory.ca